

Local & Independent Suppliers

Thank you for considering the State Cinema Bookstore as a potential stockist of your title. We are always eager to support local authors and small book suppliers, however available space is limited. Due to the large amount of interested parties, initial contact will only be accepted via email to bookstore@statecinema.com.au. Please attach this completed form to your submission.

Please note that the State Cinema Bookstore will not accept books with a lower than 40% (industry standard) margin.

We understand that a lot of time and effort goes into every publication, and each application will be given careful consideration. If we are interested in stocking your title, we will contact you to arrange an appointment to discuss matters further. Please note that only short-listed applicants will be contacted.
